

Case Study: Drainage Flow & Contaminant Study. Location: North West England.

Brief

IKM Consulting Ltd were approached to design a 'drainage flow and loading study' for a railway maintenance depot in North-West England.

There was widespread historical contamination with fuels, oils and PCB's throughout the depot and serious problems with flooding during heavy rain.

